

MATT P. BENOIT

Survey Technician

Mr. Benoit joined Trudell Consulting Engineers in September 2005. He is a Survey Technician and his responsibilities include conducting topographic surveys for sanitary engineering and construction stakeouts. He also assists with all aspects of boundary surveying. When not working in the field, his duties include CAD drafting existing conditions plans, site plans and boundary plats. His skills include:

Skills Summary

- Boundary Survey – Conducts deed research, field reconnaissance, field locating, CAD drafting for plats, setting permanent markers. Boundary surveys include: subdivision, boundary line adjustment and Uniform Common Ownership surveys.
- Topographic Survey – Field surveying to locate elevations and physical features for residential, commercial and industrial sites.
- Easement Survey – Survey work to create or locate permanent and temporary easements for public and private utility companies. Preparation of easement plats.
- Construction Phase Services – Field layout of roads, utilities, and buildings. Record survey (as-built) fieldwork and preparation of Record Plans.
- GPS Services – Conduct GPS field work for mapping and survey grade GPS DATA collection

Work History

Prior to employment with Trudell Consulting Engineers, Mr. Benoit worked as an NDE Inspection Technician and CAD Manager for Enterprise Engineering in Freeport, Maine for five years.

Education

- Associates in Civil and Environmental Engineering from Vermont Technical College.